Instructions for Form POA-1 Power of Attorney

General information

Note: Do not use this form for the following:

- personal income tax matters;
- tax matters where you are liable as an individual for taxes such as New York State (NYS) real estate transfer tax, mortgage recording tax, New York City (NYC) real property transfer tax, or NYC unincorporated business tax; or
- tax matters where you are individually liable as a responsible person for taxes such as withholding tax, sales and use tax, or motor fuel tax.

You must use Form POA-1-IND, Power of Attorney for Individuals, as evidence that the individual(s) named as representative(s) has the authority to obligate, bind, or appear on your behalf for the tax matters administered by NYS Tax Department, NYC Department of Finance, or both listed above.

Use Form POA-1, Power of Attorney, as evidence that the individual(s) named as representative(s) has the authority to obligate, bind, or appear on behalf of a business or other entity.

The individual(s) named as representative(s) may receive confidential information concerning your taxes. Unless you indicate otherwise, he or she may also perform any and all acts you can perform, including consenting to extend the time to assess tax, or executing consents that agree to a tax adjustment. Representatives may sign returns or delegate authority only if specifically authorized on the power of attorney (POA). See Limitations. Note: Authorizing someone to represent you by a POA does not relieve you of your tax obligations.

Form POA-1 will not be required when an individual appears with the taxpayer or with an individual who is authorized to act on behalf of the taxpayer. For example, Form POA-1 would not be required for an individual who appears on behalf of a corporate taxpayer with an authorized corporate officer. In addition, Form POA-1 is not required when an individual merely furnishes information, or prepares a report or return for the taxpayer.

Fiduciaries — A fiduciary (trustee, receiver, or guardian) stands in the position of a taxpayer and acts as the taxpayer. Therefore, a fiduciary does not act as a representative and should not file a POA. If a fiduciary wants to authorize an individual to represent or act on behalf of the entity, a POA must be filed and signed by the fiduciary acting in the position of the taxpayer.

Filing Form POA-1 — File the original Form POA-1 with the office of the agency in which a matter is pending. If this POA covers tax matters administered by both the NYS Tax Department and the NYC Department of Finance, a copy of Form POA-1 must be filed with each agency. A photocopy or facsimile transmission (fax) is also acceptable. Form POA-1 should be filed in a conspicuous manner. It should not be attached to or incorporated in any return, report, or other document that is routinely filed unless the return, report, or other document specifically provides for such attachment or incorporation. Sign and date all copies of documents attached to Form POA-1.

Specific instructions

1. Taxpayer information

Sole proprietorships — If you run a business as a sole proprietorship, print or type your name, including a dba (doing business as) if applicable, social security number (SSN) or employer identification number (EIN), and mailing address in the space provided.

Corporations, partnerships, limited liability companies, or associations — Enter the legal name, EIN, and business address.

Trusts — Enter the name and EIN of the trust, and the name, title, and address of the trustee.

Note: Enter your SSN or EIN on all pages.

Estates — Use Form ET-14, Estate Tax Power of Attorney, for all estate tax matters.

2. Representative information

Enter your representative's name, mailing address (including firm name, if applicable), telephone number, fax number, and email address, if applicable. Only individuals may be named as representatives. You may not appoint a firm to represent you.

All representatives appointed will be deemed to be acting severally, unless Form POA-1 clearly indicates that all representatives are required to act jointly.

3. Tax matter(s)

Enter the tax type (corporation, sales, etc.). Do not use this form for tax matters involving personal income tax or estate tax. You may enter more than one tax type. Also enter the tax year(s) or tax period(s), or transaction(s) covered by this POA. If applicable, enter the notice, assessment, or Audit ID number(s) in the last column.

If you designate only a specific tax and no tax year or period, the POA will apply to all tax years and periods. If you designate only a specific tax year or period and not a specific tax type, the POA will apply to all situations for the designated tax year or period, except for situations where you are liable as an individual (that is, not on behalf of a business or other entity). If you do not designate either a tax type or a tax period, the POA will apply to all taxes and all periods, except for situations where you are liable as an individual.

Certain taxes, like the real estate transfer tax, do not have a tax period or year, but are based on a specific transaction. In that situation, enter the date of conveyance in the Tax year(s), period(s), or transaction(s) column.

Examples:

1. You receive an assessment for unpaid franchise taxes for tax year 2007. Your records indicate that it is due to an uncredited overpayment from your 2006 taxes. You are designating POA to the representative for a specific tax type, tax years and assessment.
2. You want your representative to handle all tax matters for the years you had an S corporation in New York.

	Type(s) of tax(es) (may enter more than one)	Tax year(s), period(s), or transaction(s)	Notice/ assessment/Audit ID number(s)
1	Franchise tax	2006, 2007	9999999999
2		2000, 2001, 2002

Limitations — This POA authorizes the representative(s) you appointed to act for you for the tax matters indicated with the exception of signing returns or delegating authority. You must sign the specific authorization line if you want your representative to sign tax returns for you or if you want your representative to have the authority to delegate his or her authority to someone else. If you intend to limit the authority in any other way, mark an X in the box and attach a complete explanation (signed and dated), stating the specific restrictions. A representative named in Form POA-1 may delegate the powers given to him or her only if the taxpayer specifically authorizes delegation by signing on the line indicated in section 3. A representative does not need the consent of any other representative to make a delegation.

4. Retention/revocation of prior power(s) of attorney

This POA only applies to tax matters administered by the NYS Tax Department, the NYC Department of Finance, or both. Executing and filing this POA with an agency revokes all POAs previously executed and filed with that agency for the same tax matter(s) and year(s), period(s) or transaction(s) covered by this document. Executing and filing this POA does not revoke any other POA, including a POA executed under the General Obligations Law, for matters not listed on this POA. If there is an existing POA filed with an agency that you do not want revoked, attach a signed and dated copy of each POA you want to remain in effect and mark an X in the box on this POA form.

You may not partially revoke a previously filed POA that applies to tax matters administered by the NYS Tax Department, the NYC Department of Finance, or both. If a previously filed POA appoints more than one representative and you do not want to retain all the representatives on that previously filed POA, you must indicate on the new POA the representative(s) you want to retain.

If you want to revoke an existing POA filed with an agency and do not want to name a new representative, send a copy of the previously executed POA to the office in which a matter is pending. Write Revoked across the copy of the POA, and sign and date the form. If you do not have a copy of the POA you want to revoke, send a statement to the office where you filed the POA. The statement of revocation must indicate that the authority of the POA is revoked, and must be signed and dated by the taxpayer. Also, the name and address of each recognized representative whose authority is revoked must be listed.

A representative can withdraw from representing you by filing a statement with the office where the POA was filed. The statement must be signed and dated by the representative and must identify the name and address of the taxpayer(s) and tax matter(s) from which the representative is withdrawing.

Any change to a POA filed with one agency does not change the POA filed with another agency. If a POA covers one or more tax matters administered by the NYS Tax Department and one or more tax matters administered by the NYC Department of Finance, you must notify each agency separately in writing of any and all changes to a POA.

5. Notices and certain other communications

Statutory notices and certain other communications involving tax matters will be sent to only one representative, the first representative listed, unless you indicate a different representative on the form. If you do not want notices and certain other communications to go to any of your representatives, write None.

6. Taxpayer's signature

Form POA-1 must be signed by the taxpayer or by an individual who is authorized to execute the POA on behalf of the taxpayer. The taxpayer or its representative may be required to provide identification and evidence of authority to sign this POA.

Individuals and sole proprietorships — You must sign and date Form POA-1.

Corporations — The president, vice-president, treasurer, assistant treasurer, or any other officer of the corporation having authority to bind the corporation must sign Form POA-1.

Partnerships — All partners must sign Form POA-1, or, if the POA is executed on behalf of the partnership only, it must be signed by a partner authorized to act for the partnership. A partner is authorized to act in the name of the partnership if, under state law, the partner has authority to bind the partnership.

Limited liability companies — Every member and manager must sign Form POA-1, or, if the POA is executed on behalf of the limited liability company only, it must be signed by any member or manager duly authorized to act for the limited liability company, who must certify that he or she has such authority.

Fiduciaries — In matters involving fiduciaries under agreements, declarations, or appointments, Form POA-1 must be signed by all of the fiduciaries unless it can be established that fewer than all fiduciaries have the authority to act in the matter under consideration. Include evidence of the authority of the fiduciaries to act when filing Form POA-1.

Others — Form POA-1 must be signed by the taxpayer or by an individual having the authority to act in the interest of the taxpayer.

You must indicate the date of execution on Form POA-1.

7. Acknowledgment or witnessing the power of attorney

Form POA-1 must be acknowledged before a notary public or witnessed by two disinterested individuals who must also sign and date this form. Notary public: affix stamp (or other indication of your notary authority).

Exception: Acknowledgment or witnessing will not be required if the appointed representative is licensed to practice in NYS as an attorney-at-law, certified public accountant, public accountant, or is a NYS resident enrolled as an agent to practice before the Internal Revenue Service (IRS).

8. Declaration of representative (to be completed by representative)

In the Designation(s) column, each representative must enter the number(s) describing his or her profession or capacity to represent the taxpayer listed on page 1 of Form POA-1. If the representative enters 6 for other, that representative must indicate in the space provided at number 6 his or her relationship or capacity to represent the taxpayer. If the representative is a professional but not licensed to practice in NYS, indicate in the space provided at number 6 the representative's professional designation and the state in which he or she is licensed, such as Florida attorney. If more than one representative is listed as other, indicate the relationship or capacity for each representative by name. Each representative must sign and date the declaration and include his or her federal preparer tax identification number (PTIN), SSN, or EIN.
